AGREEMENT BETWEEN:
KELOWNA MUSEUMS SOCIETY
(hereinafter called the "Employer")
and
THE CANADIAN UNION OF PUBLIC EMPLOYEES
LOCAL 338
(hereinafter called the "Union")

PREAMBLE

WHEREAS it is the desire of both parties to this agreement:

- 1) to promote the harmonious relations and settled conditions of employment between the Employer and the Union;
- 2) to recognize the mutual value of joint discussion and negotiations in all matters pertaining to working conditions, hours of work and scale of wages, etc.;
- 3) to encourage efficiency in operation;
- 4) to promote the morale, well-being and security of all the employees in the bargaining unit of the Union.

AND WHEREAS it is desirable that methods of bargaining and all matters pertaining to the working conditions of the employees be drawn up in an agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties agree as follows:

ARTICLE 1 DEFINITIONS

EMPLOYEE CATEGORIES

- a) "EMPLOYEE" - a person in the bargaining unit who is employed by the Employer for remuneration.
- b) "PROBATIONARY EMPLOYEE" - an employee who has not completed the probationary period.
- c) "FULL TIME EMPLOYEE" - an employee who has completed the probationary period and is employed for thirty-five (35) hours per week.
- d) "PART TIME EMPLOYEE" - an employee who works less than the full time hours of work on a recurring or scheduled basis.

- e) "CASUAL EMPLOYEE" - a person who is employed on an irregular basis or to fill vacancies due to the absence of employees through illness, accident, or vacation.
- f) "TERM EMPLOYEE" - a person employed for a full time or part time assignment with a defined start and end date. Term assignments in excess of four (4) months will be posted in accordance with Article 12.01.

Term employees do not acquire seniority, unless they are an employee hired from within the bargaining unit and were accruing seniority prior to taking the term position.
- g) "STUDENT" - a person who is employed for a defined period of time and is attending school, college or university and intends to return to their studies in the subsequent academic year.

ARTICLE 2(A) RIGHTS OF MANAGEMENT

The Union agrees that the management and control of the Employer's business and the direction and control of the Employer's workforce are vested exclusively in the Employer, subject only to the limitations imposed upon the Employer by the provisions of this agreement. The Union further recognizes and agrees that the Employer retains all the customary rights, responsibilities, functions and prerogatives of management, except as expressly modified or restricted by a specific provision of this agreement.

ARTICLE 2(B) UNION RECOGNITION

The Employer recognizes the Union as the sole collective bargaining agent for all employees covered by the certification issued by the Labour Relations Board.

ARTICLE 3 NO DISCRIMINATION

There shall be no discrimination, interference, restriction or coercion exercised or practiced with respect to any employee in the matter of hiring, wage rates, training, upgrading, promotion, transfer, termination, discipline, dismissal, or otherwise by reason of race, colour, ancestry, place of origin, political belief, religion, marital status, family status, physical or mental disability, sex, sexual orientation or age of that person nor by reason of his/her membership or non-membership in a labour union. The provisions of the Human Rights Code of BC will prevail if there are any discrepancies with the interpretation or application of the above.

ARTICLE 4 UNION SECURITY

Every employee who is now or hereafter becomes a member of the Union shall maintain his/her membership in the Union as a condition of his/her employment. Every new employee shall immediately become a member of the Union upon commencement of employment.

ARTICLE 5 CHECKOFF OF UNION DUES

The Employer agrees to the checkoff of Union dues and assessments from all employees; said dues to be deducted monthly and forwarded to the Union Secretary with a list of those paying dues and the amount each pays.

ARTICLE 6 ORIENTATION OF NEW EMPLOYEES

6.01 Copies of the Agreement

The Union will supply all new employees in the CUPE Bargaining Unit, including Casual, Term and Part Time employees, with a copy of this agreement. In the Employee Orientation sessions the Employer will include and allow for a brief presentation by a CUPE representative.

6.02 Collective Agreement on S:Drive

The Employer will ensure the current Collective Agreement is available on the s:drive.

ARTICLE 7 LABOUR MANAGEMENT AND NEGOTIATIONS

7.01 Bargaining Committee

A Bargaining Committee shall be appointed and may consist of three (3) members of the Employer as appointees of the Employer, and three (3) members of the Union as appointees of the Union. The Union shall advise the Employer of the Union nominees to the Committee.

7.02 Additional Representatives

Each party to this agreement shall have the right to have the assistance of additional representatives when dealing or negotiating with the other party.

7.03 Meeting of Committee

In the event of either party wishing to call a meeting of the said Committee, the notice shall be in writing and the meeting shall be held at a time and place fixed by mutual agreement.

7.04 Function of Bargaining Committee

All matters of mutual concern pertaining to collective bargaining shall be referred to the said Committee for discussion in a results oriented fashion.

7.05 Time Off for Meeting

Any Union representative of the said Committee who is in the employ of the Employer, shall receive full pay while attending meetings of the said Committee held within working hours without loss of remuneration.

ARTICLE 8 GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

8.01 Grievances

"Grievance" means any difference between the parties bound by this agreement concerning its interpretation, application, operation or any alleged violation thereof, including any question as to whether any matter is arbitrable, and shall also mean any difference arising from disciplinary action or relating to employment where it is alleged that the Employer has acted unjustly. "Party" shall mean either of the parties to the agreement.

All grievances shall be finally and conclusively settled in a manner set out in Articles 8 and 9 without the slow-down or stoppage of work.

STEP 1:

An employee desiring to resolve a grievance shall with Union representative first seek to settle the grievance with his/her immediate supervisor, within thirty (30) days from the time the issue became known to the employee or the Union.

STEP 2:

If a satisfactory settlement is not reached within three (3) working days after a grievance was first discussed under Step 1, the grievance shall be submitted, in writing, by the Union within ten (10) working days to the Human Resources Representative.

Within five (5) working days of receipt of the grievance the aggrieved employee, in person with the Union's Grievance Committee will meet with the Employer's Grievance Committee and all relevant witnesses, in an effort to resolve the grievance. The Committee's and their functions are defined in Article 8.02.

8.02 Grievance Committees

The Employer's Grievance Committee may be comprised of the immediate supervisor, Human Resources Representative, or Executive Director, and a Board member of the Kelowna Museums Society.

8.03 Policy Grievance

Where a dispute involving a question of general application or interpretation occurs, or where a group of employees or the Union has a grievance, the grievance will be referred to the Executive Director prior to advancing to Step 2 of the grievance procedure.

8.04 Employer Grievances

The Employer may submit a grievance in writing to the Union, upon receipt of which the Union, through its Grievance Committee, shall meet with the Employer's Grievance Committee with a view to bringing about a settlement. If a satisfactory settlement is not reached within seven (7) days after the Employer submitted the grievance in writing to the Union, the Employer may refer the grievance to a Board of Arbitration as set out in Article 9.

8.05 Time Limits

All time limits listed above may be extended by mutual agreement.

ARTICLE 9 ARBITRATION

9.01 Referred to Arbitration

If the grievance is not satisfactorily settled within seven (7) days following the date of the meeting with the Employer's Grievance Committee as provided in Article 8.01, Step 2, the matter shall be referred to either a single Arbitrator or a Three (3) Panel Board defined in Article 9.02.

9.02 Board of Arbitration

Board of Arbitration shall consist of one (1) person to be mutually appointed by the Employer and the Union, unless either party indicates that they want a three (3) person Board of Arbitration which shall consist of one (1) person appointed by each party and a chairperson to be selected by the two (2) so appointed.

Where the parties are using a one (1) person Board of Arbitration, the Employer and the Union shall mutually agree on the person within seven (7) calendar days of the referral to arbitration.

Where the parties are using a three (3) person Board of Arbitration, the Employer and the Union shall appoint their respective representative within seven (7) calendar days of the referral to arbitration. The two (2) representatives shall select a chairperson within a further seven (7) days. Where the parties are unable to agree on a person to be a single Arbitrator or a chairperson, as the case may be, either party may apply to the Minister of Labour to make the appointment.

In all other respects, the provisions of the Labour Relations Code shall apply. The decision of the Board of Arbitration shall be final and binding on both parties.

9.03 Costs and Expenses of Arbitration

Each Party to the grievance shall pay its own costs and expenses of arbitration and one-half (1/2) of the compensation and expenses of the Chairperson of the Arbitration Board.

9.04 Witnesses

At any stage of the grievance or arbitration procedure, the Parties may have the assistance of the employee(s) concerned as witnesses and any other witnesses, and all reasonable arrangements will be made to permit the conferring parties or the arbitrator(s) to have access to any part of the Employer's premises to view any working conditions which may be relevant to the settlement of the grievance.

9.05 Single Arbitrator

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties may mutually agree to the use of a single arbitrator, who will be governed by the provisions of this Article. Failing to agree on a single arbitrator, the provisions of the three (3) person Board will apply.

ARTICLE 10 DISCHARGE OR SUSPENSION

10.01 Warnings

Whenever the Employer or his/her agent deems it necessary to censure an employee in a manner indicating that dismissal may follow any repetition of the act complained of or omission referred to, or may follow if such employee fails to bring his/her work up to a required standard by a given date, the Employer shall within five (5) days thereafter give written particulars of such censure to the employee involved, with a copy thereof to the Secretary of the Union.

10.02 Discharge or Suspension

Discharge or suspension of any employee shall be for proper cause.

10.03 Picket Line

Proper cause shall not include the refusal of an employee to cross a picket line maintained at the premises of the Employer by other employees of the Employer who are engaged in a legal strike.

10.04 Special Grievance

A claim that an employee has been discharged or suspended for other than proper cause shall be treated as a special grievance and shall be submitted directly to the Executive Director. Advancement to Step 2 of the Grievance Procedure will occur if no resolve is reached within ten (10) days.

10.05 Reinstatement

Should it be found upon investigation that an employee has been improperly suspended or discharged, such employee shall be immediately reinstated in his/her former position, without loss of seniority and shall be compensated for all time lost in an amount equal to his/her normal earnings during the pay period next preceding such discharge or suspension, or by any other arrangement as to compensation which is proper and equitable in the opinion of the Parties or in the opinion of the Board of Arbitration if the matter is referred to such a Board.

ARTICLE 11 SENIORITY

11.01 Seniority Defined

Seniority is length of service with the Employer.

11.02 Seniority for New Employees

New employees shall be considered to be probationary employees until they have been continuously employed for five hundred and sixty (560) hours or six (6) months, whichever comes first; and during such probationary period they shall not be entitled to seniority. The Employer may deem the probationary period served at any time, during this period. At the end of such probationary period, an employee shall be entered on the seniority list.

11.03 Seniority List

The Employer shall maintain a seniority list based on hours of service, with the exception of those employees grandfathered in prior to the collective agreement signed in 2012, by hire date. An up-to-date seniority list shall be sent to the Union and posted on all bulletin boards in January each year.

The date of seniority for current part time employees shall be maintained for the remainder of their employment. Dated to the last collective agreement.

11.04 Layoff

The Employer and the Union recognize that job security should increase in proportion to length of service. Therefore, in the event of a layoff, except as otherwise mutually agreed, employees shall be laid off in reverse order of seniority, provided that those employees retained are qualified to do the work. Except as otherwise mutually agreed, employees shall be recalled in order of their seniority, provided they are qualified to do the work.

An employee shall lose his/her seniority in the event he/she is laid off for a period longer than one (1) year.

ARTICLE 12 PROMOTIONS AND STAFF CHANGES

12.01 Job Posting

If a job vacancy occurs, or a new position is created which comes within the scope of this Agreement, notice of such vacancy or new position shall be posted on all bulletin boards for a period not less than five (5) working days. Copies of such notice will be sent to the Union and the Unit Chair.

12.02 Seniority to Apply

Promotions and transfers shall be made on the basis of seniority, provided the employee concerned possesses the necessary qualifications, skill, knowledge and ability to efficiently fulfil the job requirements.

12.03 Trial Period

When an employee is promoted or transferred from one classification to a higher one, the employee shall be on a trial period for four (4) months. At the conclusion of the trial period (or sooner if it should become apparent that the employee cannot successfully complete the trial period), the Employer shall review the service of the employee while on the job.

12.04 Salary Increase

In the event a salaried employee is promoted or temporarily assigned to a higher rated classification, where a graduated salary range is provided, he/she shall be paid at least that rate in the salary range for the classification to which he/she is promoted or temporarily assigned which is next higher than his/her present rate.

12.05 Union to be Notified

The Union shall be notified of all appointments, hirings, layoffs, rehiring or terminations of employment. Notification shall be to both the Secretary of the Union and the Unit Chair.

12.06 New Classifications

The Employer may institute new classifications in addition to those listed in Schedule "A". Should any such new classifications be instituted, the Employer shall establish the rate for same and shall submit the classification and rate to the Union in writing, and in addition, shall post the classification and rate in the manner required by Article 12.01. Within thirty (30) calendar days of such submission and posting, the Union may, if it deems necessary, request to meet with the Employer to review the classification and rate and, if mutual agreement cannot be reached, the difference may be referred to arbitration under the provisions of Article 9. Any change in rate resulting from discussion between the Employer and the Union, or following a reference to arbitration, shall be retroactive to the date the new classification was instituted by the Employer.

12.07 Changed Classification

If the Union or Employer claims that the duties of an existing classification have been changed to an extent sufficient to alter the classification and/or rate, the Union and the Employer will meet to review the classification and/or rate. If within thirty (30) calendar days of the submission of such request, which shall be in writing, mutual agreement cannot be reached, the difference may be referred to arbitration under the provisions of Article 9. Any change in rate resulting from discussion between the Employer and the Union, or following a reference to arbitration, shall be retroactive to the date the Union submitted its request to the Employer.

12.08 Abandonment

If the Union does not request to meet with the Employer to review the classification and rate within sixty (60) calendar days, as provided for in Article 12.06, or if the Union does not refer the difference, if any, to arbitration within sixty (60) calendar days, as provided for in Article 12.07, then the difference, if any, shall be deemed to be abandoned and all rights of recourse to arbitration shall be at an end.

12.09 Extension of Time Limits

The time limits referred to in this article may be extended by mutual agreement of the Employer and the Union in writing.

ARTICLE 13 HOURS OF WORK

13.01 Normal Work Day and Normal Work Week

- a) The normal work week shall consist of five (5) consecutive seven (7) hour days, thirty-five (35) hours per week. A seven (7) hour shift shall not be spread over a period longer than eight (8) hours with one (1) hour off for lunch unless otherwise mutually agreed in writing.
- b) Notwithstanding the provisions of 14.01 and with sufficient notice, the Employer and the Union may, by mutual agreement, vary the start-quit times, within the existing hours of work.

13.02 Rest Periods

All employees shall receive two (2) rest periods of fifteen (15) minutes each in a seven (7) hour shift.

13.03 Hours of Work to be Posted

The hours and days of work of each employee shall be posted in an appropriate place. Employees shall be given two (2) weeks' notice prior to any change in the scheduling except in emergency situations occurring during the regular working day.

13.04 Earn Days Off

The employer shall maintain an Earn Days Off program (EDO), which shall allow for employees to bank regular time or overtime worked on any given day. Regular fifteen (15) minute breaks are not eligible for banked time.

The program shall be available to all employees. Involvement in the program shall be voluntary.

Employees seeking to work EDO hours or take EDO time off, must first receive the permission of their supervisor. Permission shall not be unreasonably denied and shall be for bona fide operational reasons only.

Banked EDO time shall be calculated at the overtime or regular rate of pay for the position in which the time was banked.

Unused bank time shall be paid out at the end of each fiscal year. The employer may grant an employee permission to carry over additional EDO time if requested.

ARTICLE 14 OVERTIME

14.01 Overtime Defined

All hours worked in excess of seven (7) and up to and including nine (9) hours in any one (1) day, shall be paid at a rate of one and one-half times (1½x) the employee's regular hourly rate.

All hours worked in any one (1) day in excess of nine (9) hours, shall be paid at a rate of double (2x) the employee's regular-hourly rate.

14.02 Call Out

Employees called out to work, without prior notice, outside regular working hours, shall be paid two (2) hours minimum at double (2x) the employee's regular rate.

14.03 Day of Rest

Employees called in to work on their day of rest without two (2) weeks prior notice, will be paid at a rate of double (2x) their regular rate for all hours worked.

ARTICLE 15 HOLIDAYS

15.01 Statutory Holidays

All employees with over thirty (30) days' service, who normally work half-time (½) or more, shall receive regular pay for the following holidays (for part-time employees, holiday pay shall be calculated on a prorated basis):

New Year's Day	Labour Day
Family Day	Thanksgiving Day
Good Friday	British Columbia Day
Easter Monday	Remembrance Day
Victoria Day	Christmas Day
Canada Day	Boxing Day

and any other day proclaimed or declared by the Federal or Provincial Governments as a holiday.

Employees shall be given one (1) month's notice prior to working on a statutory holiday.

15.02 Statutory Holiday on Scheduled Day Off

Where such statutory holidays fall on the regular day off of any employee, there shall be granted a day off at a future time in lieu of the statutory holiday. The lieu day shall be taken within sixty (60) calendar days of the statutory holiday. The lieu day shall be by mutual agreement between the employee and the employee's Department Manager.

15.03 Work on a Statutory Holiday

Any employee required to work on a statutory holiday shall be paid at the rate of double time (2x) for all hours worked on such day plus the regular day's pay for the holiday. The employer may use casual employees who shall be paid double time (2x).

ARTICLE 16 ANNUAL VACATIONS

16.01 Vacation Year - Definition Of

The term "vacation year", as used in this agreement, shall mean the twelve (12) month period running from January 1st to December 31st of the previous calendar year.

16.02 Time Off for Annual Vacation

Full time employees shall earn vacation time each year according to the following schedule. Earned vacation time shall be taken in the year following.

One (1) – five (5) years	six (6%) percent (three (3) weeks)
Six (6) – ten (10) years	eight (8%) percent (four (4) weeks)
Eleven (11) – fifteen (15) years	ten (10%) percent (five (5) weeks)
Sixteen (16) – twenty (20) years	twelve (12%) percent (six (6) weeks)
Twenty-one (21) or more years	fourteen (14%) percent (seven (7) weeks)

16.03 Vacation Pay Accrual

Employees shall accrue vacation pay each pay period at the rates shown in 16.02.

16.04 Holidays During Vacation

If a statutory or declared holiday falls on or is observed during an employee's vacation period, he/she shall be granted an additional day's vacation for such holiday in addition to his/her regular vacation time.

16.04 Scheduling of Vacations

All employees shall be granted vacations at a time convenient to the operation of the Museum and at a time preferred by the employees if possible. In the event of conflict of vacation dates available, the choice shall then be determined by seniority. Vacations shall be taken in one (1) unbroken period or in periods of no less than five (5) working days, or as agreed to by the supervisor.

16.05 Termination of Employment

In the event of termination of employment for any reason, an employee is entitled to their vacation allotment based on Articles 16.03.

ARTICLE 17 SICK LEAVE PROVISIONS

17.01 Sick Leave Defined

Sick leave means the period of time an employee is permitted to be absent from work with full pay by virtue of being sick, disabled or because of an accident for which compensation is not payable under the Workers' Compensation Act.

17.02 Sick Leave Entitlement

Full Time employees shall be entitled to sick leave on the basis of one and one quarter (1¼) days [six (6%) percent] for each month of service following completion of their probationary period. Unused sick leave may be accumulated by an employee up to a maximum of one hundred and fifty (150) days. Part time employees shall accumulate sick leave on a pro-rated basis. Casual employees do not accumulate sick leave.

17.03 Proof of Illness

As a condition of receiving sick leave, the Employer may require the employee to produce a certificate from a duly qualified medical practitioner covering the entire period of absence certifying that the employee was unable to work due to illness or accident.

17.04 Sick Leave During Absence

When an employee returns to work after an approved leave of absence or within twelve (12) months of being laid off, the amount of accrued sick leave at the beginning of such leave of absence or layoff shall be credited to the employee.

17.05 Sick Leave Records

A record of all unused sick leave will be kept by the Employer. Employees will be advised of accrued sick leave credits upon application.

ARTICLE 18 LEAVE OF ABSENCE

18.01 For Union Business

The Employer agrees that where permission has been granted by the Employer to representatives of the Union to leave their employment temporarily with respect to a grievance, they shall suffer no loss of pay for time so spent.

18.02 Union Conventions

Leave of absence with pay subject to reimbursement by the Union and without loss of seniority shall be granted upon request to the Employer, to one (1) employee elected or appointed to represent the Union at Union Conventions.

18.03 Bereavement Leave

In the event of a death in the immediate family of an employee, or an employee's spouse, the Employer shall grant a three (3) regularly scheduled consecutive work days' leave without loss of pay or benefits. Additional leave of absence with pay for travel may be granted by the Executive Director or designate. "Immediate family" shall mean: step-child, parents, brother, sister, grandparents, grandchild, step-parent, foster child, foster parent, aunt, uncle, niece, nephew, and fiancé (é); and the employee's brother-in-law and sister-in-law, daughter-in-law and son-in-law, spouse, son, daughter, father-in-law, mother-in-law.

Two (2) additional days' leave without loss of pay or benefits will be granted in the event of the death of an employee's spouse, son or daughter.

One-half (½) day shall be granted without loss of pay or benefits to an employee to attend a funeral as a pallbearer provided such employee has the approval of the Department Manager.

18.04 General Leave

The Employer shall grant leave of absence without pay and without loss of seniority to an employee requesting such leave for good and sufficient reason, provided the employee's request is in writing and that the granting of such leave shall be subject to the Employer's approval. Such approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.

18.05 Jury Duty or Court Witness

The Employer shall pay to an employee who is required to serve as a juror or court witness, the difference between his/her normal earnings and the payment he/she received for jury duty or as a court witness, conditional upon the employee presenting to the Employer proof of service and of the amount of payment received by him/her.

18.06 Pregnancy/Paternity Leave

Employees shall be granted pregnancy/paternity leave in accordance with the provisions of the British Columbia Employment Standards Legislation.

ARTICLE 19 PAYMENT OF WAGES AND ALLOWANCES

19.01 Wage and Salary Rates

Wage and salary rates shall be as set out in Schedule "A" of this agreement.

19.02 Employee RRSP Plan

An employee RRSP plan will be established with a licensed provider for all full time and part time employees beginning May 1, 2007. The Employer and the employee will each contribute one percent (1%) of gross pay to the group plan. The amounts are to be withheld from payroll and submitted by the Employer to the plan.

19.03 Vehicle Allowance

Employees required to use their own vehicle on the Employer's business shall be paid the mileage rate applicable in effect under the Employer's Mileage Reimbursement Policy.

ARTICLE 20 BENEFITS (for Regular Employees Working More than Half (1/2) Time)

20.01 Medical Insurance

The Employer shall contribute one hundred percent (100%) of the premiums of the BC Medical Services Plan for all permanent employees who are employed more than half-time (1/2).

20.02 Group Life Insurance & Accidental Death & Dismemberment

Employees shall participate in a Group Life Insurance and Accidental Death and Dismemberment policy, with a recognized carrier. The Employer shall pay one hundred percent (100%) of the regular monthly premium. The amount of coverage shall be calculated on the basis of two times (2x) an employee's annual salary.

20.03 Extended Health Care

The employer shall contribute one hundred percent (100%) of the premiums for an Extended Health Care plan and Standard Vision Care Plan that includes an eye exam every two (2) years up to seventy-five ($75.00) dollars in which all employees shall enroll.

20.04 Employee Assistance Plan

Starting January 1, 2014 an Employee Assistance Plan from a recognized carrier shall be implemented and cost shared equally between the Employer and the employee.

20.05 Dental Plan

The Dental Plan from a recognized carrier shall be paid for seventy-five (75%) percent by the Employer and twenty-five (25%) percent by the employee.

20.06 In Lieu of Benefits

Employees who are not eligible for the benefit plan shall receive ten (10%) percent in lieu of annual vacation, statutory pay and benefits. This will be accrued biweekly included in payroll and can be withdrawn in any pay period.

ARTICLE 21 TECHNOLOGICAL CHANGE

21.01 During the Term of This Agreement

During the term of this agreement any disputes arising in relation to adjustment to technological change shall be discussed between the bargaining representatives of the two (2) parties to this Collective Agreement.

21.02 Introduction of a Technological Change

Where the Employer introduces, or intends to introduce, a technological change, that:

- a) affects the terms and conditions, or security of employment of a significant number of employees to whom this Collective Agreement applies, and
- b) alters significantly the basis upon which the Collective Agreement was negotiated, either party may, if the dispute cannot be settled in direct negotiations, refer the matter directly to an Arbitration Board pursuant to Article 9 of this Collective Agreement, by-passing all other steps in the grievance procedure.

21.03 Arbitration Board

The Arbitration Board shall decide whether or not the Employer has introduced, or intends to introduce a technological change, and upon deciding that the Employer has or intends to introduce a technological change, the Arbitration Board:

- a) shall inform the Minister of Labour of its finding; and
- b) may then or later make any one (1) or more of the following orders:
 - i) that the change be made in accordance with the terms of the Collective Agreement unless the change alters significantly the basis upon which the Collective Agreement was negotiated;
 - ii) that the Employer will not proceed with the technological change for such period, not exceeding ninety (90) days, as the Arbitration Board considers appropriate;
 - iii) that the Employer reinstate any employee displaced by reason of the technological change;
 - iv) that the Employer pay to that employee such compensation in respect of his/her displacement as the Arbitration Board considers reasonable;
 - v) that the matter be referred to the Labour Relations Board (under Section 77 of the Labour Code of British Columbia).

21.04 Notice of Intended Technological Change

The Employer will give to the Union in writing at least ninety (90) days' notice of any intended technological change that:

- a) affects the terms and conditions or security of employment of a significant number of employees to whom this Collective Agreement applies; and
- b) alters significantly the basis upon which the Collective Agreement was negotiated.

ARTICLE 22 GRANT WORKERS

22.01 Provincial/Federal Incentive Applications

The Union agrees to sign the required Provincial/Federal Incentive application forms when the Kelowna Museums makes application.

22.02 Rates of Pay and Benefits

The Parties agree that the rates of pay and benefits, etc., are to be negotiated between the Employer and the Union.

22.03 Grievance

In the event the Union and Employer cannot reach an agreement on rates of pay and benefits, the Union or Employer may file a grievance under Article 8 of the Collective Agreement. Failing satisfactory settlement, the matter may be submitted to arbitration under Article 9.

ARTICLE 23 CONTRACTING OUT

The Employer and the Union agree with job security for their employees and will work jointly to develop a Letter of Understanding (LOU) around contracting out by the end of 2012.

ARTICLE 24 GENERAL CONDITIONS

24.01 Union Bulletin Boards

The Employer shall provide the union with an appropriate bulletin board for its use at all work locations.

ARTICLE 25 TERM OF AGREEMENT

This Agreement shall take effect from January 1, 2016 and shall remain in effect until December 31, 2018 and thereafter from year to year unless written notice of intent to terminate or amend the Agreement in accordance with the appropriate statute is given by either Party to the other Party.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the parties hereto, by their authorized representatives, have affixed their signatures hereto on this 10 day of August, 2016.
